

2012 Freshman Admission Essay Questions

UNDERGRADUATE ADMISSION

Get started on your admission application today by choosing one of our unusual essay questions:

Education Funding

If you were responsible for creating your high school's budget for the next year, how would you distribute the money? Don't worry about specific figures – just explain what programs you'd prioritize and what changes you'd make.

If You Had to Pick Just One...

What is the best thing since sliced bread?

Object Lessons

Go to your kitchen, open a drawer or cabinet, choose an object, and write about it. Explain the object's biography and its significance to you or your family. What is its story? What might it want to be doing that it's not doing now?
